"This Meeting having listened with ^{much} considerable pleasure and ^{interest} edification to the address just delivered by David Blair Esq. on the great and all important ^{subject} cause of National Temperance and sensible of his efficient services during his short visit to Hobart Town, cannot permit him to leave this city without expressing its ^{grateful sense of his zeal and ability} admiration of his zeal and talent and its sincere wish for his welfare and happiness sincerely regretting that, from existing circumstances, and for the success of the great cause in which he his stay cannot possibly be prolonged, and prays that he may long enjoy the inestimable blessing of good health, and speedily see the desire of his heart accomplished."

Carried with acclamation, the whole audience rising.
