

Deposited by Arthur Harrap, May 1959
Access: Open for research

ALFRED HARRAP & SON

Miscellaneous records of Alfred Harrap & Son of Launceston, merchants, woolbrokers, shipping agents, Tamar River Boats, founded by Alfred Harrap (1820-1893) in 1857. In 1887 Harrap purchased the wool firm of W.T. Bell Ltd. In 1896 G.W. Valentine joined the firm under Alfred's son George Edward Harrap (1856-1937).

H.4/1-4 Wool shipment 1868, 1869

Two letters to Alfred Harrap from Robert Brooks & Co., London, about wool consigned to them by Harrap for the executors of the late A. I. Horne - no improvement in prices owing to the large quantity of wool on the market, with bill of lading (in duplicate) and insurance policy (in duplicate).
(7 papers)

H.4/5 "Alfred Harrap & Son Pty Ltd 1857 - 1957,

A century of service", booklet issued to celebrate centenary compiled by C.B. Thomson, illustrated.
(booklet 16 pp)