

Presented to him at the Guildhall London on his becoming a Freeman of that City in the Drapers' Company

in Affirmation
The Oath of every Freeman of the CITY of LONDON.

affirm
YE shall ~~swear~~ that ye shall be good and true to our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE.

Obeysant and obedient ye shall be to the Mayor and Ministers of this City: the Franchises and Customs thereof ye shall maintain, and this City keep harmless in that that in ye is.

Ye shall be contributory to all manner of charges within this City, as Summons, Watches, Contributions, Taxes, Tallages, Lot and Scot, and to all other Charges, bearing your part as a Freeman ought to do.

Ye shall colour no Foreigners' Goods, under or in your name, whereby the King, or this City, might, or may, lose their Customs or advantages.

Ye shall take none Apprentice for any less term than for Seven Years, without fraud or deceit; and within the first year ye shall cause him to be enrolled, or else pay such fine as shall reasonably be imposed upon ye for omitting the same;
 and after his term's end, within convenient time (being required) ye shall make him free of this City if he have well and truly served ye.

Ye shall also keep the King's Peace in your own person.
 Ye shall know no gatherings, conventicles, nor conspiracies made against the King's Peace, but ye shall warn the Mayor thereof or let it to your power.

All these Points and Articles ye shall well and truly keep, according to the Laws and Customs of this City, to your Power. So God you help.

God save the King.
