

Deposited by Mrs Cotton 1971

Access: Open

WILLIAM DOWNIE MD.

Medical diploma and papers of William Downie. These were formerly with papers of Dr. G.F. Story of Kelvedon and were rolled with his diploma, showing the same staining and effects of heat (See C.7).

- D.9/1 Baptism certificate 20 Oct. 1801
 Certified extract of entry of baptism and birth of William, son of Murdo Downie, Master Royal Navy, and Anne Smith his wife, parish of Foot Dee, Aberdeen, Scotland.
 (paper 6 1/2 ins x 3 1/2 ins)
- 2 Testimonial - Medical Studies 4 June 1821
 Testimonial certifying that W. Downie studied anatomy, surgery and medicine under A. Collie, Surgeon R.N., Aberdeen, for one year.
- 3-10 Lecture Attendance Testimonials Mar. - Nov. 1823
 Certificates of regular attendance at lectures and dissections: in anatomy from William Mackenzie assistant to Dr. Monroe, Edinburgh, Patrick Blaikie, Aberdeen; in anatomy and surgery from John Barclay, Edinburgh; in surgery from John W. Turner; in military surgery from David Maclagan M.D.; attendance at Edinburgh Infirmary.
 (8 papers, some torn)
- 11 Edinburgh University Certificate of Studies July 1823
 Certificate of studies at King James VI Academy [Edinburgh University] in materia medica issued to William Downie (Scot.), signed by Andrew Duncan.
 (paper 13 ins x 6 ins, torn at edges, stained with red wax on one edge)
- 12 Anatomy Studies Attendance Jan. 1824
 Certificate of attendance of W. Downie at lectures at the Theatre of Anatomy, Great Windmill Street, London, and diligence in dissecting. Signed: Charles Bell, John Stair. Paper has portrait of William Hunter MD.
 (paper, stained with red wax)
- 13 M.R.C.S. London 6 Feb. 1824
 Admission as Member of Royal College of Surgeons, London. Signed by President, Vice President and others.
 (paper with wafer seal, 12 1/2 ins x 18 ins. torn on right side)