

Donated by B. J. Mattingley, 1989
Access: Open for research.

M. A. P. MATTINGLEY

Maxwell Albert Percy Mattingley (1913-1971), BA 1935, MA 1940 was a student from 1933 - 1934, residing at Christ College. He had begun his studies at Trinity College, Melbourne University. After graduation he became a teacher and was later a headmaster in North Queensland.

LECTURE NOTEBOOKS

UT498/

- 1 Trinity College, Melbourne, History 1932
Notes on British History "B" from D. Gordon Taylor and Professor Scott.
(3 vols)
- 2 University of Tasmania, History 1933, 1934
Notes on English constitutional history, Australasian history, 19th century European history, diplomacy and U.S.A. and Japan from Professor C. King.
(8 vols)
- 3 English literature: Professor Taylor 1933
(2 vols)
- 4 Latin II, III: Professor Dunbabin 1933-1934
Notes on Tacitus, Seneca, Horace, Lucretius, Plautus, Juvenal, Martial etc.
(8 vols)

TOGATUS

- 5 Togatus 1932 - 1934
M.A.P. Mattingley's copies of Togatus (student magazine), some annotated with full names of writers of articles and notices:-

Vol. II	Nos. 5, 9, 10, 13,	1932
Vol. III	Nos. 1-13	1933
Vol. IV	Nos. 1-12	1934